Compliance Roles

Operations Branch - South East Region

Senior Compliance Officer (APS6)

Ongoing and Non-Ongoing (temporary), Full Time

Canberra, ACT – Penrith, NSW

Develop your future, at the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission, by helping to improve the quality and safety of NDIS supports and services.

JOIN OUR TEAM

The NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (the NDIS Commission) is an independent government agency established to improve the quality and safety of NDIS supports and services. Our purpose is to work with people with disability, providers and the community to deliver nationally consistent, responsive and effective regulation for NDIS supports and services. The NDIS Commission brings together various quality and safeguards functions into a single agency for the first time, and will have a suite of education and regulatory powers that apply across Australia. We are progressively rolling out nationally and by December 2020 will have a presence in every state and territory capital city. Our head office is located in Penrith, NSW.

The NDIS Commission presents an opportunity for you to join an organisation that actively works to improve outcomes for people with disability.

These roles provide you with the opportunity to assist the NDIS Commission to deliver national compliance programs and shape compliance strategies and policies, which help to ensure NDIS providers comply with their obligations to keep NDIS participants safe from harm.

The NDIS Commission is committed to building a diverse workforce and inclusive culture. We strongly encourage people with disability to apply for roles and to reach out to our recruiters if you require an adjustment to the recruitment process in order to participate on an equal basis with others.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT WHAT WE DO

The NDIS Commission is the dedicated national regulator of NDIS service providers in Australia and a non-corporate entity under the Public Governance, Performance and Accountability Act 2013. The NDIS Commission commenced operations in New South Wales and South Australia on 1 July 2018, and expanded its operations to other jurisdictions (Tasmania, Queensland, Victoria, Northern Territory and ACT) on 1 July 2019. The NDIS Commission will commence operations in Western Australia on 1 December 2020.

The NDIS Commission's core legislative functions are to:

- uphold the rights of, and promote the health, safety and wellbeing of, people with disability receiving supports or services, including those received under the National Disability Insurance Scheme;
- develop a nationally consistent approach to managing quality and safeguards for people with disability receiving supports or services, including those received under the National Disability Insurance Scheme;
- promote the provision of advice, information, education and training to NDIS providers and people with disability;
- secure compliance with relevant legislation through effective compliance and enforcement arrangements, including through the monitoring and investigation functions conferred on the NDIS Commissioner by legislation;
- promote continuous improvement amongst NDIS providers and the delivery of progressively higher standards of supports and services to people with disability;
- develop and oversee the broad policy design for a nationally consistent framework relating to the screening of workers involved in the provision of supports and services to people with disability;
- provide advice or recommendations to the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) and its Board in relation to the performance of the Agency's functions;
- engage in, promote and coordinate the sharing of information to achieve the objects of the relevant legislation, and
- provide NDIS market oversight, including:
 - monitoring changes in the NDIS market which may indicate emerging risk; and
 - monitoring and mitigating the risks of unplanned service withdrawal.

WHAT THE OPERATIONS BRANCH IS RESPONSIBLE FOR

The Operations Branch comprises North Central West and South East regions. These are responsible for State and Territory operations that deliver the NDIS Commission's complaints function; building provider capability to prevent and manage incidents affecting people with disability; building capability in positive behaviour support strategies; and undertaking compliance and investigation activities, and enforcement action.

The State and Territory Directors together with the Branch Heads responsible for the regions, are responsible for the efficient and effective delivery of the NDIS Commission regulatory functions in each Australian jurisdiction.

- Reportable Incidents
- Complaints
- Compliance and Investigations

The Operations Branch forms part of the Registrar's functions in the NDIS Commission, which also includes national provider registration, compliance and investigation strategy and policy, worker screening and market oversight.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Applications are sought from suitably qualified, professional and motivated individuals to undertake compliance focused roles.

Suitable candidates must meet the requirements of the role as outlined in this information pack.

There are multiple roles at the APS6 classification level.

The NDIS Commission is committed to building a diverse workforce and inclusive culture. We strongly encourage people with disability to apply for roles and to reach out to our recruiters if you require an adjustment to the recruitment process in order to participate on an equal basis with others.

APS6 SENIOR COMPLIANCE OFFICER ($85,137 - $95,695)

Senior Compliance Officers will be part of a state-based team. At the APS6 level you will undertake the following duties:

- Work with individual NDIS providers to assist them in understanding their obligations, and where non-compliance may have occurred, guide them to address those issues and risks.
- Where systemic issues are identified, work locally with groups of NDIS providers to promote quality improvement strategies, and across the organisation to develop education and other materials to improve compliance.
- Undertake monitoring and analysis activities designed to inform the development of compliance responses.
- Lead compliance promotion and education campaigns to inform and educate NDIS providers, participants and the public about the NDIS Commissioner's functions and the requirements of relevant legislation and rules.
- Undertake enquiries, monitoring and analysis to develop compliance responses.
- Develop and maintain productive working relationships with a large and diverse range of external stakeholders, including state and territory counterparts, service providers, and regulatory bodies to facilitate the work of the compliance function, and the NDIS Commission more broadly.
- Undertake monitoring and analysis to develop and support compliance responses.
- Plan and implement compliance responses that are risk-based and proportionate to the type of alleged or suspected non-compliance.
- Prepare complex and/or sensitive correspondence and corporate documentation, including reports, briefings and submissions to support action by the NDIS Commissioner.
- Contribute to the planning and monitoring of work processes for a small team.
- Provide guidance to others at the NDIS Commission.
- Actively participate in an environment where learning and information sharing is encouraged.
- Undertake a range of general administrative duties.
- Regular travel may be required.

Essential Requirements

To be considered for appointment to this role applicants must be able to demonstrate that they possess:

- A minimum of 5 years' experience in a similar role with commensurate responsibilities is essential.
- A Certificate IV in Government (Investigations) or Certificate IV in Government (Regulatory Compliance) or Certificate IV in Government (Compliance and Risk Management) or equivalent is highly desirable.
- The ability to communicate well with, relate to and see issues from the perspective of people from a diverse range of cultures, backgrounds and experiences.
- Well-developed problem solving skills including the ability to analyse issues from different perspectives and draw sound inferences from available information and data.
- The capacity to collaborate, cooperate and work well with others in the pursuit of common objectives.
- Relevant experience in a compliance focused role.

Skills, Knowledge and Personal Attributes

Ideal candidates will have experience in a similar role, or the ability to demonstrate that they possess:

- A well-developed understanding of contemporary compliance processes and practices and experience in compliance reviews.
- The capacity to develop and sustain excellent working relationships within the team, the NDIS Commission more broadly, and with a variety of stakeholder groups.
- An ability to identify opportunities for continuous improvement and to contribute to the development of solutions to achieve quality outcomes
- Excellent written and oral communication skills including the capacity to produce quality reports, briefings and correspondence of a complex nature.
- Highly developed organisational skills including the capacity to manage competing demands and to meet deadlines.
- The ability, and the confidence, to make sound judgements and decisions based on thorough monitoring and analysis, problem-solving, innovation and evidence-based practice, to achieve the objectives of compliance functions, and the NDIS Commission more broadly.
